

6th gr Showcase
mar 2, 3

Newton
2006 49

THROUGH THE EYES OF A CHILD

Key of Eb

Words and Music by MARK BURROWS (ASCAP) and GREG GILPIN (ASCAP)

Gentle ballad ($\text{♩} = \text{ca. } 80$)

Musical notation for measures 1-3. Treble clef, key signature of two flats, 4/4 time. Measure 1 contains a whole rest. Measure 2 has a handwritten '2' above it. Measure 3 has a handwritten '3' above it. Piano accompaniment begins in measure 1 with a piano (p) dynamic.

Musical notation for measures 4-7. Measure 4 starts with a circled '5' and a checkmark above it, and a circled '1' below it. The lyrics are: "Do you still gaze in won - der at the stars up in the". Dynamics include p, f, and s. Handwritten numbers 6 and 7 are above measures 6 and 7 respectively.

Musical notation for measures 8-10. Measure 8 starts with a circled '1' and a checkmark above it. The lyrics are: "sky? Do you still dream of soar - ing as you". Handwritten numbers 9 and 10 are above measures 9 and 10 respectively.

11 watch the ea - gle fly? 12 13 mp Can you still see the 14 world for all the good it has to give? 15 16 Can you still see the

17 p When you look at life through the eyes of a child, 18 19 that's when you tru - ly

20 poco rit. mp 21 a tempo live. Through the eyes of a child we see what life is tru - ly meant to be. Through the eyes of a 16

2 3 2 1 2 3

child we see the pos - si - bi - li - ties, when hearts are o - pen, minds are free, then sud - den - ly, life is more worth - while.

19

32

35 mp med soft

Can you still feel the mag - ic of a hol - i - day sur - prise? Can you still see the laugh - ter in a zuh tah

36 37

38 39 40

41 42 43

moth - er's lov - ing eyes? Can you still see the zuh

44 45 46

world for all the good it has to give?

thah vuh

17 p

When you look at life through the eyes of a child, that's when you truly

50 mf 51 52

live. Through the eyes of a child we 53 54 55

see what life is truly meant to be. Through the eyes of a child we see the possibilities, when hearts are open, minds are free, then

56 57 58

2nd time skip to m61

Back to m51

60

59

sud-den-ly, life is more worth-while. Through the while.

1. 2.

62

mp

p

63 64

65

p relax tempo

When you look at life through the eyes of a child,

p relax tempo

66 67

68

molto rit.

that's when you truly live.

molto rit.

8va

69 70